B E B
Ring them bells, ye heathen, from the city that dreams

For they're deep and they're wide, and the world's on its side
B E F# B
And time is running backwards and so is the bride

B E B
Ring them bells, St. Peter, where the four winds blow
B F#
Ring them bells with an iron hand so the people will know
E B Em7 E
Oh, it's rush hour now on the wheel and the plow
B E F# B
And the sun is going down upon the sacred cow

[instrumental verse]

B E B
Ring them bells, Sweet Martha, for the poor man's son
B F#
Ring them bells so the world will know that God is one
E B G#7 E
Well, the shepherd is asleep where the willows weep
B E F# B
And the mountains are filled with lost sheep

[Bridge] G#7 B G#7 B
Ring them bells for the blind and the deaf, ring them bells for all of us who are left
G#7 Gaug B/F# G#7/F
Ring them bells for the chosen few who will judge the many when the game is through
E B E F#
Ring them bells, for the time that flies for the child that cries when the innocence dies. [pause]

B E B
Ring them bells, St. Catherine, from the top of the room
B F#
Ring them from the fortress for the lilies that bloom
E B G#7 E
Oh, the lines are long and the fighting is strong
B E F# B
And they're breaking down the distance between right and wrong

[instrumental verse]
